Valedictorian Ben Lhotka

Ninety-five seniors received their diplomas at Commencement 1986. They will remember that their pictures were projected on the wall as they shook hands with Board Chairman Mark Wedel, and they will probably also remember how hot it was in the gymnasium. The choir sang "That's What Friends are For," and the band performed "Aventura."

Salutatorian John Allison welcomed the audience and reminded the class that their Aitkin education had helped them to learn to set goals, meet responsibilities, and form friendships. He told them to forget the bad memories and remember the good ones. The years of high school had been the best days of their lives - so far. Valedictorian Ben Lhotka thanked those who had played a part in the seniors' lives and supported them, especially their parents. Dr. Duane R. Lund, retired Staples superintendent and long-time educator, gave the commencement address. He began by asking graduates, "Where do you think you're going?" He cautioned them not to be simply carried by the "current" of life, but to swim it. He urged them to set goals so that "you go where you want to go" and "do what you want to do."

The seniors received friends and relatives in the old gym following the exercises, and then many of them attended the all-night graduation party planned for them at Twelve Moon Lodge. It helped to make that last time all together linger and be very special.

Lots of congratulations were handed out.

Gobbler Football 1986

Tim Carlson looks for the best route.

GOBBLERS ARE WINNERS!!!

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS: Shanen Reinhardt, Frankie Linehan, Ann Carlson, Kelly Hite, Sheila Westvig.

Quarterback John Tibbetts broke school records.

Craig Alto runs for a touchdown!

Led by the Tri-Captains, Tony Baker, Phil Jones and John Tibbetts, the Gobblers advanced to the Region finals. It was a year where the "Big Play" offense prevailed. Craig Alto led all backs with 941 yards rushing, setting a new school record. Craig also accumulated over 1500 yards of total offense. John Tibbetts and Craig combined their efforts for 21 total touchdowns. John, by scoring 70 points in a single season, set another school record. But, these highly successful Backs would be the first to admit that without an offensive line, opposing defenses would shut them down. The offensive line, led by five seniors and two sophomores, was as follows: Tony Baker at Right Guard, Joel Grunenwald and Phil Jones at Left and Right Ends, Bob Stuart at Left Guard and Gene Weimer at Right Tackle: the two sophomores were Brian Kokesh at Left Tackle and Paul Watson at Center. The highlight of the season, and the game most memorable to graduating seniors, was the "Come from behind" victory over Virginia. At the beginning of the 4th Quarter, Aitkin was trailing the heavily favored Blue Devils 8 - 14. On the first play from scrimmage, John Tibbetts took a Tim Carlson hand-off and charged behind Baker, Weimer and Jones. Fifty yards later, Tibbetts was in the end zone and the score was tied. The extra point was good and Aitkin was victorious 15 - 14, giving them the chance to compete in the Region Finals.

B SQUAD CHEERLEADERS: Nikki Kern, Jessica Ladd, Kaija Reinhardt, Paula Eklund, Lynn Banks.

Tennis Team Scores In Spite Of Injuries

"This is what happens when you try to go to the left and the right at the same time."

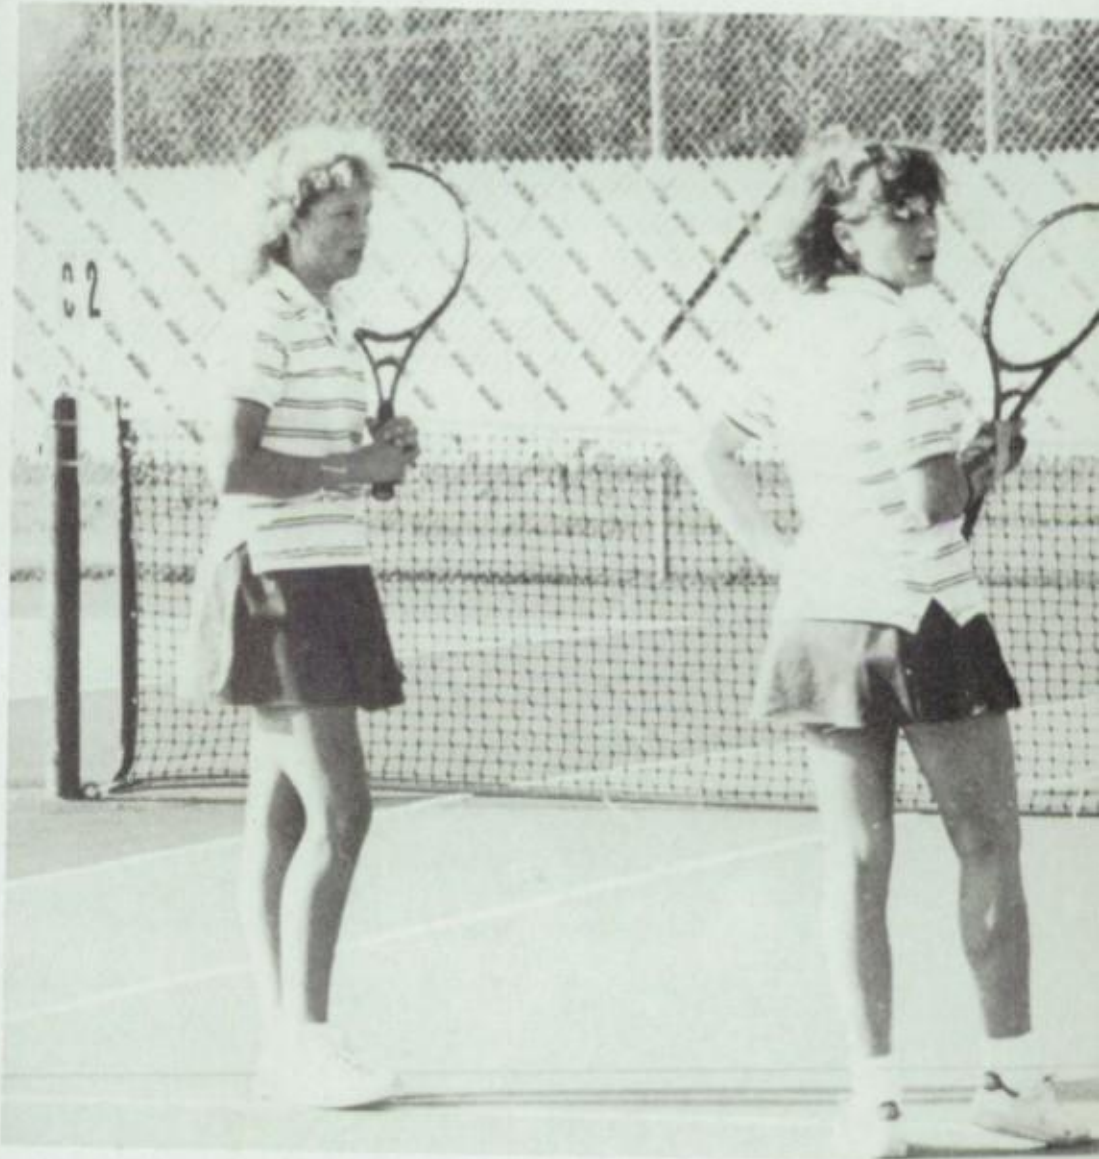

Paula Soderquist was Aitkin's entrant and third place finisher in region play.

Dawn positions herself for the shot.

The tennis team boasted a good record even though they were very young and plagued with injuries. It was the first time in four years that Aitkin did not win the New York Mills tourney. All season long, injuries caused changes in doubles teams. Jennifer Kjelstrom broke her wrist three weeks into the season; she was out for two weeks and played with a cast after that. The doubles teams regrouped again when Kris Falk was forced to sit out the rest of the season from torn ligaments.

The team defeated Crosby-Ironton in the first round of tournament play and lasted until the regions where they bowed out to Blake in a 5-0 contest. One singles player, Paula Soderquist, placed third in the region tournament in the individual competition. With most of the team returning, the coach looks for an even better year in 1986.

Kris and Jennifer check the competition.

B SQUAD BASKETBALL TEAM

This season turned out to be a pleasant surprise. With a very difficult schedule and conference, the squad would have to mature and come together as a team. They struggled to a 1 and 4 start, but by Christmas they turned the corner to play some exceptional ball.

By tournament time the Red and Black had a 10 and 9 record and finished third in the tough Midstate conference. The Gobblers were seeded third in the district and finished third. The key game was the semifinal; Aitkin was paired up against C-1 for the third meeting of the year. Each had won earlier on their home floor. Aitkin jumped to a quick 12 point lead, but C-1 roared back to lead by 1 at half. The second half was C-1's; the Gobblers could not find the basket, relinquished the lead and were not able to get it back.

In the final, Aitkin clobbered Milaca 76-56 for third place. The game was emotional when John Tibbetts reached 32 points. With 4 seconds left in the game, he reached 1,048 career points and Aitkin's all-time scoring record. This capped off a great three years for John.

By season's end, Aitkin showed a 12 and 10 record; some losses had been very close and a couple of them in overtime. The players could feel very good about the progress they had made. Improvement is what we strive for and these kids did that as well as any I have coached. Nice going guys!!

Sub-region Coach of the Year

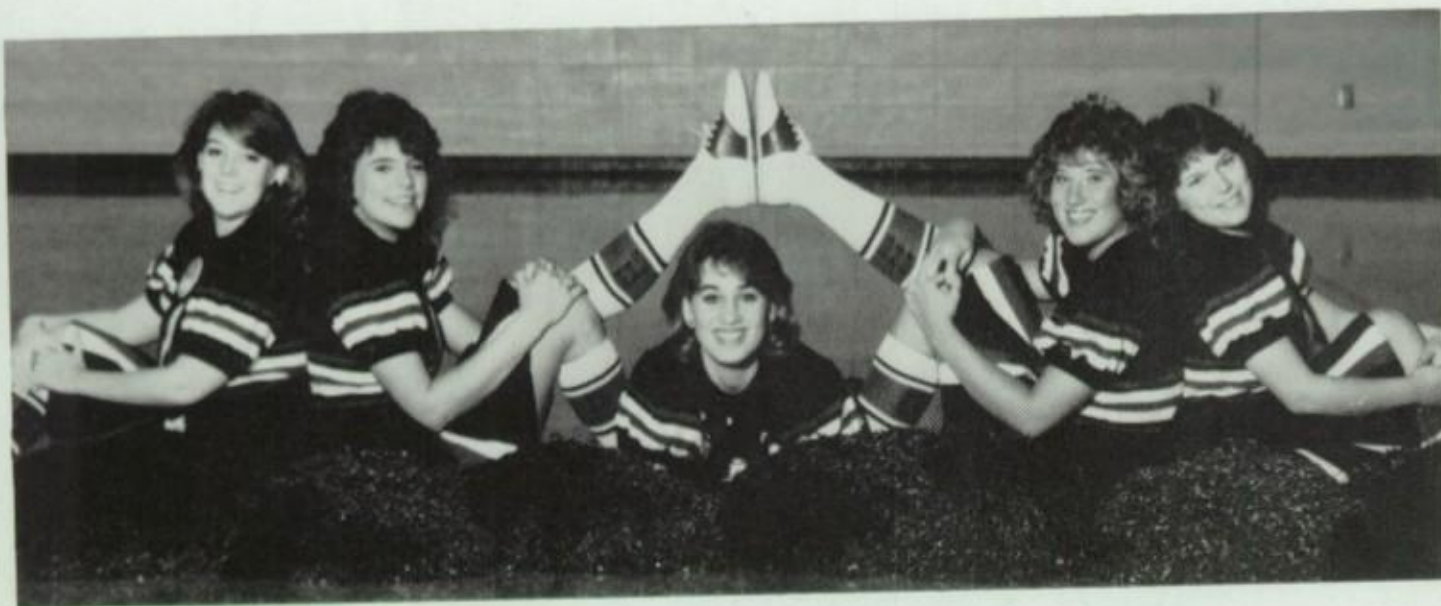

This was a rewarding year in many ways with the team finishing respectably, individuals winning championships, and to conclude a fine season, Tony Baker was named to the All-State Academic Wrestling team for 1986, with Phil Jones receiving Honorable Mention. With many wrestlers returning for the 1986-87 season, Aitkin will present a challenge to all opposition.

Homecoming Week was super! Monday started with "Dress Up Day" and coronation. The candidates are pictured above. Tony Baker and Sue Pearson were crowned King and Queen by last year's royalty. A new event this year was the powderpuff football game which ended in a 0-0 tie between the Junior girls and the Senior girls. A few brave guys made excellent cheerleaders. Next came "Taco Tuesday," which saw many kids dressed in the Spanish tradition. Wednesday was "Beach Day;" people brought beach balls and towels and wore shorts and swimsuits. On Thursday, polyester-plaid pants and checkered shirts were a common scene for "Nerd Day!" To end our festive week, Friday was "Red and Black" or "Anything Goes" day. The big Homecoming football game with Detroit Lakes ended in a disappointing loss for us. At nine, all danced to Redd Rydder. Festivities lasted until midnight to end Homecoming Week.

Christmas Week

The second annual Christmas week for 1985 began with a Monday called "Wish Everyone a Merry Christmas Day." "Winter Wardrobe Day" on Tuesday saw students wearing boots, scarves, mittens, snowpants, and other winter clothing. On Wednesday, candy canes were sold to be delivered to sweethearts. Thursday was "Dress in Old Fashioned Red and Green Christmas Colors Day." Friday was celebrated with caroling uptown and the delivery of sweetheart candy canes. A record dance concluded the week's activities on Friday night.

THANK YOU!

We would like to give a special thank you to several others who helped us with this book. Without the time, supplies and effort that they generously donated to the A-Book, we could not complete this book.

Erstrom's Studio - for all the individual underclassmen pictures, many of the sports team pictures, and many of the group photos.

The Aitkin Independent Age - for letting us borrow negatives from their files and taking some sports action pictures for us.

Riviere's House of Photography - for attending events and taking Homecoming pictures and some of the group photos.

person, stay that way!

Tim

Chris-
Do you miss the big D.A. yet?
Life there can be pretty dull.
Hurry back so we can live up the place. Let's pull some good funnies. Hopefully we won't get fired! (We won't) Anyway, stay the cool person
you are. Only a year left. Let's make it a good one.
Friends always,
Janelle

Chris-
You know as well as I that it's impossible to put into words
what our friendship has meant.
Even though we haven't been as close as we used to be you still know me best. I will never forget all the hours we talked on the phone and all that we've talked about.
You've helped me through some real hard times and I hope I've done
the same for you, even if it's just by listening. I wish you all the best in the future! Give remember one thing:
Leave some quips for the rest of us.
Love & friendship always
